A TRIBUTE TO JACK CALDWELL

FOR JACK, who gave of himself at all times, we give joyous and grateful thanks.

HIS WAS a faith that inspires. He had a rich spiritual heritage from the sturdy stock from which he came.

HE HAD a deep satisfaction in his life and his home. A joy of high and sustained achievement, of clean and honest labor.

HIS WAS a life of noble and far-reaching usefulness, of tireless industry and he discerned life's meaning as a trust committed by God.

HE WAS most devoted to his family, loyal to his friends and countless numbers of people are richer because his life touched theirs.

WE ARE grateful for him as a son, a husband, a father, a brother, friend and neighbor who lived with us in faith, hope and love, whose heart and hands have been so rich in praise and service and a great blessing to us all.

THE LINGERING sunbeams of his good humor

THE NATURAL unheralded kindnesses of his modest Christian life.

HIS GIFT of and capacity for friendship.

HIS DELIGHT in and love of people and many of all his love of Christ and His church.

"Others, Lord, yes, others,
Let this my motto be,
Help me to live for others,
That I may live like Thee".

By Host of Friends

"How much does a checking account really cost?"

After all, nothing's free."

Right. So when we advertise free checking, there's got to be something in it for us. And there is. You.

You see, if we can encourage you to be a Fidelity customer by not charging you for the checks you write or for servicing your account, it's worth it.

Because if we can get you to try us, we think you will like us. Then maybe we can help you in other ways. Like lending you money to buy a car. Or to fix up your house. Or in any of dozens of ways we've found to make the going easier for all kinds of people. And when we help you, we help us.

So when we offer free checking, there is something in it for us. But there's something in it for you, too.

A checking account that you don't have to pay for.

Tea Held For Language Week

For visitors there were displays and refreshments and the students and teachers involved appeared to be having a very good time, too, during a "Foreign Language Week" which was held last Tuesday at Appomattox County High School. Each of three languages was featured in a display in the school cafeteria (above) with Nancy Maxwell (far left) dressed in a costume for Spanish displays admiring the Fleur de lois held by Norma Calhoun. Spanish instructor James Hall is holding a pinata' while French and Latin instructor Miss Claudine O'Brien holds a doll dressed in regalia of some Roman ruins, a souvenir of a trip to Europe taken by several Latin students. Mrs. Edwina Covington (not shown) is French teacher and French club sponsor. Mildred Jones is president of the Latin Club; Nathan Snell, vice president of the French Club and Lanis Sola, president of the Spanish Club. Home made pastries, cakes and candy were enjoyed by all together with fruit punch. The refreshment table was decorated with floral and fruit arrangements.
